

Interactive Designer | Boston

The Position

We are looking for a creative, driven interactive designer to join our Boston studio.

Are you highly responsible and motivated, excited to lead interactive design projects, and have a proven track record of great design and project management to show off? We want to talk! With Neoscape, you'll take a concept through each phase of the design process while leading and collaborating with clients and teams.

The Designer

- Has 3+ years experience as an interactive designer in a fast-paced agency
- Shares a robust portfolio demonstrating interactive and visual design experience across various platforms.
- Has proven ability of taking the lead on interactive design projects including managing project timelines, budgets and teams.
- Has strong design skills and is effective at communicating conceptual ideas and detailed design rationale both verbally and visually to our clients.
- Is a champion of Adobe Creative Suite, XD, Sketch, InVision, Studio or comparable UI/UX software.
- Has some experience with HTML, CSS, video and animation.
- Has some experience mentoring or managing designers / interns.
- Works positively, enthusiastically and respectfully with other project team members.
- Bachelor's degree in Graphic or Interactive Design or other related field.

We Offer

- A competitive compensation and benefits package including 401K with the potential for profit sharing contributions
- Health insurance with a 65% employer-paid premium
- Unlimited vacation
- Transit subsidy
- Work from home policy
- Summer Fridays and more
