

The Position: Senior Motion Graphics Artist

Date: July 2022

Who You Report To: Art Director

FLSA: Exempt

The Position:

Neoscape, a pioneer in the Architectural Visualization industry, is seeking a talented and motivated Senior Motion Graphics Artist to join the Film Team in its New York studio. If you have demonstrated mastery of all things mograph, we want to talk to you.

Your Primary Responsibilities*:

- Conceptualization, design, and animation of high-end motion graphics to be used in films, interactive applications, you name it. Lower thirds, supers, transitions, map sequences are often what you will find yourself working on.
- Collaborating with other Neoscapers such as 3D artists, editors, VFX artists, motion graphics artists, and others in order to create top notch work
- Taking direction from the creative leads on projects, but also able to insert your own ideas and look for opportunities to turn in work that's beyond what's expected
- Leading mid and junior level artists, giving advice, direction and assigning tasks
- The ability to roll up your sleeves, step outside your comfort zone, and do whatever it takes to deliver high quality product to our clients on time and within budget

Your Skills and Experience:

- 5+ years of experience with Adobe After Effects
- Proven familiarity with 3D applications such as 3ds Max and Maya
- Up on the latest industry trends and always sharpening your skills
- Beyond all technical know-how, we are looking for artists who are excellent communicators, team players, problem solvers, and all-around good people

We Offer:

At Neoscape we pride ourselves in our ability to jump in and help out wherever help is needed. Aside from your core responsibilities, you will likely be asked to assist with shoots, on-set VFX supervision, and any number of tasks related to the post-production process.

Beyond all technical know-how, we are looking for artists who are excellent communicators, team players, problem solvers, and all-around good people. We also have a great benefits package - and a kegerator.

About Neoscape
